

JOIN US

For an AMAZING 8 day workshop in Gwa'yi

See the attached details

Please submit your name to Leanne Moon if you would like to join us for this event.

Phone: 250 974-3838

Email: neenamusha@hotmail.com

We need your full commitment.

A boat / boats will be leaving Port McNeill on July 4, 2019 and bringing people back out on July 12th/13th

To start this off Ryan Nicolson will be doing a presentation on Traditional Governance the morning of July 5th. See the details.

Meals will be provided for the duration of the workshop.

Transportation to Port McNeill and back home from Port McNeill is your responsibility.

EIGHT DAY GOVERNANCE WORKSHOP IN KINGCOME JULY 5 – 12, 2019

AGENDA

AFTERNOON BRIEFING FOR DZAWADA'ENUXW ORGANIZERS, FACILITATORS AND REPORT WRITERS

JULY 5 – AFTERNOON OF DAY ONE

This afternoon session is designed to provide leaders, organizers and support team with an introduction to the citizen's forum and strategy session. The group will select Dzawada'enuxw citizens to provide support, including organizers, facilitators, report writers and youth participants / emerging leaders.

DZAWADA'ENUXW CITIZEN'S FORUM

JULY 6 TO 9 – FOUR DAYS

The citizen's forum is for up to 100 people. The first four days provides Dzawada'enuxw citizens with a clear understanding of the Inherent Right and the Indian Act. Participants learn about the history of our inherent rights and how the Indian Act obstructs real governance. This session provides citizens with an understanding of the power they have and what they can do to create historic change for their nation. This forum is designed to spark a decision to change. Dzawada'enuxw facilitators will assist with dialogues and Dzawada'enuxw report writers will document outcomes of exercises.

Objectives

- Provide an opportunity to understand and compare inherent right governance to Indian Act governance and spark a desire for change.
- Provide an opportunity for citizens to understand Aboriginal rights & title, and the role they can play in bringing about change.
- Provide an opportunity for citizens to understand the principles of effective governance and the power they have to establish a new government-to-government relationship.
- Establish a governance transition team.
- Document the statements of Dzawada'enuxw citizens.

DZAWADA'ENUXW CITIZEN'S STRATEGY AND PLANNING SESSION

JULY 10, 11 – TWO DAYS:

This strategy and planning session is for up to 100 people. Participants will build their agenda for change. Dzawada'enuxw Nation will walk away with the vision, values, priorities, goals and timeframes necessary for preparing a work plan to transition to Inherent Right governance.

Dzawada'enuxw facilitators will assist with dialogues and Dzawada'enuxw report writers will document outcomes of exercises.

Objectives

- Identify Dzawada'enuxw citizen's vision, values, priorities, goals and timeframes necessary for preparing a work plan for transitioning from the Indian Act to inherent right governance.
- Ensure that the vision, values, priorities, goals and timeframes are supported by citizens and founded on principles of effective governance.
- Document the statements of Dzawada'enuxw citizens.

MORNING DEBRIEF FOR DZAWADA'ENUXW ORGANIZERS, FACILITATORS AND REPORT WRITERS

JULY 12 – MORNING OF DAY 8

Organizers, facilitators and report writers meet with Satsan to review outcomes and identify next steps.

DELIVERABLES

- Afternoon Brief for Dzawada'enuxw First Nation team
- Four-day forum for Dzawada'enuxw citizens.
- Two-day planning session for Dzawada'enuxw citizens
- Morning debrief for the Dzawada'enuxw First Nation team.
- Introduce Dzawada'enuxw Nation facilitators to facilitation processes.
- Support Dzawada'enuxw Nation writers as they prepare a forum report listing citizen's issues and opportunities for distribution to the community.

DZAWADA'ENUXW NATION AGREES TO SUPPORT THESE ENGAGEMENTS AS FOLLOWS:

- Provide a suitable meeting room with enough seating to accommodate up to 30 people.
- Provide a suitable facility with enough seating to accommodate up to 100 people.
- Handle opening and closing protocols.
- Provide photocopying for handouts,

- Provide materials and equipment as needed
- Invite, promote and arrange for participants to attend.
- Provide administrative support where required and requested.
- Select a governance transition team
- Provide catering as needed.